BROKER'S COMMENTS

"How do you make a motor-sailer that doesn't look like one and behaves like a real sailing ship ? The answer is the Van de Stadt Norman 40. Her raised decksaloon gives her that light and roomy atmosphere so much required nowadays. She is roomy, comfortable and very much a family cruising yacht. Lots of stowage space and with three separate cabins very suitable in entertaining friends and family. Easy driven hull, a good performer under any weather conditions."
