BRISTOL 45.5 CENTERBOARD

BROKER'S COMMENTS

We sold this Bristol 45.5 in 2005 to her current owner. Both previous and current were moved by the fluent lines, excellent build quality and very sturdy construction. Almost forgot to mention the full furling sails, centre cockpit layout with huge aft cabin and last but not least her "secret weapon" the centreboard keel. Her current owner just completed a very extensive refit with option for her new owner to add to her very nice overall condition. So looking for a unique centre board yacht, this Bristol 45.5 is for you. A "must see" yacht to fully appreciate.
