BENETEAU OCEANIS 38 WEEKENDER

BROKER'S COMMENTS

The chines over the entire hull length of the Oceanis 38 ensure stiff sailing characteristics and moderate heeling. Never before has there been such a balance between performance and comfort on a cruiser of this size. The Oceanis 38 is sensational below deck. Without the optional forward bulkhead there's a huge sense of space. She's an easy boat to sail with an assured performance and the cockpit layout works well – both for moving about under way and for loafing around at anchor.
