Extra info	Some history; The Scharhörn - named after a German island near Cuxhaven - was built in 1939 as a motorsailor commissioned by a German "harbor baron" in Bremen. Right after WWII, Scharhörn was confiscated by the Allies and then served as an officer's ship for the French Navy. The first owner recovered the ship some years later and sailed it until 1954 after which the ship came into Dutch hands. This owner and his family sailed the ship with great pleasure and love until she was sold to her 3rd owner in 1992. He had her fully refitted from 1998 to 2000 by 4 craftsmen at the renowned Dutch shipyard Th. Kok in Vinkeveen. In 2017 she was sold to a Swiss gentleman who again sold her in 2021 because of the purchase of a larger vessel. After the purchase, the new owner took her to a renowned shipyard for a thorough update and paintjob. Circumstances forces him and his family to hand Scharhörn over to a new owner who will ove sailing her and secure this gem for the future.
