BROKER'S COMMENTS

Very few Atlantic 36s become available, and even fewer in this condition. A proper Bluewater cruiser with character, capability, and enough storage space to keep spare parts you will proudly never need. “ Nimbus ” is very well maintained, seriously well equipped, and built like the Dutch expected to sail straight through the apocalypse. The lifting keel lets you sneak into shallow anchorages while pretending you planned it all along. The second owner, maintained her exceptionally well. This is one of those rare yachts that immediately gives the impression she was built to cross oceans..
