FEELING 1090

BROKER'S COMMENTS

A charming and well-proportioned French sailing yacht, the Feeling 1090 combines comfortable cruising with practical sailing performance. Built by the renowned French shipyard Kirié, she offers a generous layout and the classic character of a well-designed yacht from the late eighties.With her shallow draft of just 1.40 metres, she is particularly suited to exploring shallow waters, inland waterways and coastal cruising grounds where deeper-drafted yachts have to think twice ! A lovely opportunity for anyone looking for an affordable, characterful cruiser with plenty of potential.
