

TOM COLVIN STEEL KETCH 42

1995 | 13,50 m | staal

BROKER'S COMMENTS

"Unique sailing vessel designed by Thomas E. Colvin. Strong built by the Metal Boat Company of London. If you look for something special, not 13 in a dozen, and when space and class do appeal to you, you should come and convince yourself. After exploring the deep blue, she is now in our sales marina, all prepared for her next voyage. "
